FLY DIRECT TO GRAND CANYON —SPEND A FULL DAY AT THE RIM

A New One-Day Excursion To The Magnificent Grand Canyon

No need to make special arrangements in order to see the Grand Canyon, whether you are bound for sunny California or your favorite summer vacation dream spot — just specify that you want to fly via Phoenix. Then when you arrive in Phoenix, the complimentary station wagon ride will take you the short distance to Del Webb's Hiway House where a cool refreshing dip in the pool will relax you before a good night's sleep in a luxurious air conditioned room.

Next morning the Hiway House station wagon will take you to the airport in time to board your Bonanza Air Lines flight direct to Grand Canyon. Just 70 minutes later you arrive at Valle Airport where the famous Fred Harvey organization meets you and takes you to the South Rim.

During the rest of your day at the Rim, it is suggested that you take advantage of the excellent and informative drives offered by Fred Harvey. You arrive in time to take the morning or West Rim drive to Trail View, Hopi, Pima Points, and Hermit's Rest. Or — you can view the Canyon for yourself in the morning and take the afternoon East Rim Drive to Yavapai Point Lookout, Moran Point, Lipan Point and the Watchtower, and Trading Post Desert View. Better yet — why not take both? Variety Vacation's package tour enables you to take both drives without the necessity of staying overnight at the Rim.

See the famous Hopi Indian dances at sunset, then board your Fred Harvey limousine for a quick ride back to the airport where your Bonanza Air Lines flight whisks you back to Phoenix. The Hiway House again welcomes you for another enjoyable night's stay. Next day, depart Phoenix for the continuation of your vacation.
